HUNGARIAN DEBATE.

Vienna, October 4.—A disorderly scene occurred in the lower House of Parliament today, resulting in the suspension of the sitting amid general uproar. While Baron von Sternberg was speaking during the debate on the Government's declaration of policy, he was continually and badgeringly interrupted by Dr. Wolff, the Pan-German leader. Von Sternberg appealed to Dr. Wolff to desist, but the latter persisted. Finally Von Sternberg lost his temper and threw a water glass at Dr. Wolff, striking him on the chest. A great uproar followed and the president of the house called Von Sternberg to order. The German members were not satisfied with that measure and demanded that Von Sternberg apologize. This the Baron refused to do, and the president, in order to restore order, declared the sitting suspended. The uproar continued until Von Sternberg left the house.

The sitting was resumed after an hour, when the President said he expected an expression of regret from Von Sternberg. The Baron, in apologizing, admitted that his action had not been in accordance with the rules of the House, but he insisted that he acted in legitimate self-defense, though certainly he had not been polite. The president withdrew the Baron's right to speak and the latter attempted to continue amid the wildest uproar. The president was unable to secure order and adjourned the House until tomorrow.

The marriage is recorded at Elk, N. M., of E. Barefoot and Miss S. N. Boots.

It is said that M. Witte's name is pronounced as though it were spelled with a V.

Social Side of Life

Golf seems to be as popular as ever in Honolulu judging from the crowds which flock to Moanalua, College Hills and Haleiwa, although we are told that tennis is all the rage in the States and England and golf is decidedly behind the times.

Bridge, too, is out of it and distinctly was the fashion, so I am told, but the game goes on as strenuously as ever here, and nobody cares whether it is the fashion or not.

Among the departures this week for the Coast were Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Irwin, Mrs. Ivers, Miss Helene Irwin, Miss Margaret Hyde-Smith, Mrs. J. Burns, Miss Roberts, Miss Christian, Miss Whiting, Mrs. Lorrin Andrews, Miss Andrews, Mrs. Earl, Mr. Ewart and Mr. Wells. The Irwins are going to Europe for a stay of two years and will be in San Francisco but a short time. Both Helene Irwin and Margaret Hyde-Smith were much entertained and Miss Roberts, Miss Christian and Miss Whiting were also most popular.

On Monday evening Mr. Bruce Cartwright and Miss Kathleen Cartwright entertained at the Alexander Young at dinner in honor of Mr. and Mrs. McClanahan. Among the guests were Doctor and Mrs. H. Murray and Doctor Voet. The table decoration was a large centerpiece in a cut glass bowl of shaded pink geraniums, the glossy dark green leaves contrasting most artistically. The exquisite service of the Alexander Young made the table charming to look upon.

Mr. and Mrs. Chalmers A. Graham were passengers on the Korea for Honolulu. Mrs. Graham will make a short visit here while her husband goes to the Orient. Bruce Cartwright, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Knight, Miss Thelma Parker, Mrs. Percy Benson, Mrs. Buckland, the Misses Buckland, Dr. and Mrs. Day, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Lovested, Lieut. Cushman, U. S. N.; Manager Hertsche, Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Hutchins, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Richardson, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Wall, J. D. Easton, M. M. O'Shaughnessy, Col. Soper, Mr. T. Hobron, Mr. and Mrs. Kerr and Mr. and Mrs. Cohen were other arrivals of the week.

Mr. Harry Lyon, the son of Captain and Mrs. Lyon, is expected to arrive on the ship of Captain Goodwin. Mr. Lyon has been in ill health and he is making the trip for the benefit to be derived from the long journey. He will find a host of friends to bid him welcome, for both Captain and Mrs. Lyon are very popular in Honolulu.

Owing to the death of Mr. Edward Gifford many dinners and luncheons planned in honor of Mrs. Tenney have been given up. Mr. and Mrs. Tenney and the E. F. Bishops are going to Byron Springs. The Mongolian will take a large Honolulu contingency and among others will be Miss Leontine Hartnagle.

Miss Leontine Hartnagle has been the guest of honor at several functions this week. She sails on Friday for San Francisco where she will join the Alexander Iseberg and visit in California before going to Seattle, her objective point.

Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Hutchins are occupying the Wood bungalow on Thurston avenue.

It is pleasant news to hear that Miss May Damon has recovered her health and will soon return to Honolulu. She is spending some time with Mrs. John Merrill at St. Daustans.

Miss Grace Spreckels has left the sanatorium and is again at her home on Pacific avenue, but has not yet recovered her strength sufficiently to go out at all. The date of her wedding to Alexander Hamilton has not been arranged, but the event is probably not far distant, should Miss Spreckels' health continue to improve.

Both Miss Spreckels and Mr. Hamilton are decidedly indifferent to the delights of society and have announced positively that they will permit no entertaining in their honor, except of the most informal nature, which is a distinct disappointment to their many friends, who were planning a number of events for them.—Call.

Bishop Libert and Father Valentine are expected to leave Antwerp about November 4th and are expected to arrive in Honolulu in December.

Miss Ethel Barr, who is suing the Rapid Transit Co., was a trained nurse for Mrs. Earl, who, with her little son, sailed this week for her home in Los Angeles. She has been much entertained during her visit here and was very charming.

Miss Beatrice Spillavo, who is soon to wed Lieutenant Shoemaker, will be the special guest at a luncheon next Saturday to be given by Mrs. Howard Morrow at her home.—Call.

Admiral and Mrs. Terry are in Washington for the winter, and have taken a charming house at 1519 21st street. Miss Terry is much admired in society and has a large circle of friends.

Mr. W. A. Bailey and Mr. M. Bird of Honolulu, and Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Wilcox of Lihue, Kauai, were registered at Byron Hot Springs, October 9.

New York, October 5.—A romance that began eight years ago at the wedding of mutual friends culminated here today, when Dent H. Robert, managing editor of the San Francisco Examiner, and Miss Elizabeth Woodson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Emmet Leake Woodson, were married in the Hotel Majestic.

Mr. Robert met his bride in 1897, when both participated as best man and maid of honor, respectively, in the marriage ceremony of Mr. and Mrs. Justin McGrath. The friendship which began at that time between the couple did not lapse, although they did not meet for a number of years. During a recent visit of Miss Woodson to San Francisco the acquaintance was renewed and when she returned to her home here several months ago, Mr. Robert had won her promise to become his wife.

The wedding today was simple and informal. The ceremony was performed in the presence of a number of friends. Miss Woodson was attended by her sister, Florence; F. D. White acted as best man. An interesting and reminiscent feature was the attendance as flower girl of Miss Justine McGrath, eldest daughter of the couple whose wedding brought about the meeting of the bride and groom.

After the ceremony there was an informal reception, accompanied with light refreshments, during which the guests tendered their congratulations and best wishes. Congressman William Randolph Hearst and his wife were amongst the guests and with a graceful toast he pledged the bride and groom a long and happy life. Many telegraphic felicitations from friends in San Francisco and elsewhere were also received. After a short honeymoon in the East, Mr. and Mrs. Robert will visit the groom's old home in St. Louis, and will then go to San Francisco, where they will reside.

The bride is a member of a well-known Southern family of Memphis, Tenn. Her father was for many years engaged in the cotton business there and is now special expert for the New York Cotton Exchange. Mr. Robert also belongs to a prominent family of the South. His father was a distinguished member of the Episcopal clergy of St. Louis. The groom is well known in newspaper circles in St. Louis, in this city and in San Francisco.

Among the guests were Mr. and Mrs. S. S. Carvalho, T. T. Williams, Mrs. S. S. Chamberlain, Mr. and Mrs. George Palmer, A. L. Clarke, Douglas Robert,

Mr. Robert recently visited Hawaii.

On Saturday evening the musical club will meet with Mrs. Theo. Richards. Among the performers will be Mrs. Ingalls, Mrs. Richards, Mrs. Wichman, Miss Maud Kinney and Miss Stevens. Mrs. Richards is president of the club and Mrs. Wichman secretary and treasurer.

Mr. and Mrs. Hagens entertained at dinner for Mr. Lorenz and Mr. Schultze at the Alexander Young on Monday evening.

The Woman's College Club is giving a lunch at the Hawaiian Hotel today. The object is to have the members become better acquainted. Mrs. Fear is president of the club since the resignation of Mrs. Richard Ivers.

Lieut. and Mrs. Cushman, who arrived this week, will be delightful additions to the society of Honolulu. Paymaster Brown expects to sail for Cavite next week.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Kopke and Miss Kopke arrived from the Colonies this week after a visit of several months.

Miss Helen Wilder is living in Pajaro Valley, California. The James Wilders are expected soon in Honolulu, where they will reside for some time.

Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Watson are touring Hawaii. They will return in ten days.

A delightful Japanese lunch was given at the Japanese Club House by Mrs. Gardner Wilder in honor of her sister, Miss Barnes. It was a picturesque affair, for kimonos were worn and the hair dressed a la Japanese. The souvenirs were chopsticks and fans. Among those present were Mrs. John Walker, Mrs. Brainerd Smith, Mrs. J. F. C. Hagens, Mrs. Charles Wilder, Mrs. H. Voder, Mrs. H. Focke, Mrs. George Rodiek, Mrs. E. F. Bishop, Mrs. Armin Hansen, Mrs. Ashford, Mrs. J. F. Humberg, Mrs. F. W. Kiebahn, Misses Margaret Walker, Cordelia Walker, Helen Macfarlane.

A stag dinner was given for Mr. Pollitz of San Francisco on Tuesday. Among those present were Mr. H. Focke, Mr. G. Rodiek, Mr. H. M. Whitney, Judge A. A. Wilder, Mr. A. J. Campbell, Mr. W. F. Protenhauer, Dr. C. B. Cooper.

Mrs. Raymond de B. Layard has a cousin visiting her from England. Miss Hignford arrived on the Sonoma, and will spend the winter at the Consulate.

Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Humberg, who are leaving next week to reside permanently in San Francisco, are being much entertained. Mrs. Armin Hansen will give a dinner for Mrs. Humberg at the Hawaiian Hotel on Monday, and on Tuesday Mr. and Mrs. von Hamm will entertain them at dinner, and many other lunches and dinners have been given in their honor. The Humbergs have resided here for many years and will be greatly missed.

Miss Helen Alexander has cards out for a Halloween party. The invitations are on black cardboard in the shape of a bat on which is inscribed the following: Oh Halloween at seven o'clock. Thrice please upon our portals knock. The door will open and you shall see. The awful shakes of things to be.

Mrs. George Rodiek is giving a lunch for Miss Margaret Walker on Wednesday.

Miss Helene Robson, of San Francisco, who has been so ill, has recovered and is enjoying the social whirl. She is much admired and is considered a beautiful girl. She is considered quite one of the best gowned young women in the smart set.

Mrs. H. D. Couzens is giving a Kofe Klatch on Monday for Miss Margaret Walker, who goes next week to the Coast for a change of air. Mrs. Couzens, by the by, is to give another little art sale for the ladies of Honolulu.

Preparations are going on rapidly for the St. Andrew's bazaar which is on Saturday the 28th of October at Iolani College. The various committees are hard at work and scarcely a day passes but meetings are held at the different houses. The fancy table will have hundreds of useful and lovely gifts. The doll table is to be particularly attractive, and the home-made candy booth will delight young and old. The flower booth will have many surprises, the new lamp shade and paper flower table are dreams of beauty, while natural flowers are so closely imitated that only an expert could detect the difference. The natural flowers and pots of palms, ferns and shrubs are to be unusually attractive. The delicacies will be in charge of Mrs. Noonan and she promises some real New England baked beans as well as every dainty under the sun—lemonade, ice cream and cakes can be found and all the delights which attend a fair can be found at St. Andrew's on the 28th.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Holloway gave a luau last evening in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Tenney. It was a very delightful affair and conducted with much artistic taste. Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. Faxon Bishop, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Knight, Mr. and Mrs. H. Macfarlane, Dr. and Mrs. Cooper, Mrs. Helen Noonan, Miss Walker, Mr. H. Walker and Mr. Tarn McGrew.

San Francisco, Saturday.—Members of the Tait party returning from the Orient say the romance in which Miss Alice Roosevelt and Representative Nicholas Longworth, of Ohio, are the principal figures seems likely to find a natural ending at the altar at no distant date, when Miss Roosevelt will become Mrs. Longworth. Mr. Longworth was most attentive to Miss Roosevelt at all times on the trip. It is said he reached her from a perilous situation on a trip which some members of the party took to Mindanao. Miss Roosevelt, Mr. Longworth and several other members of the party will return on the steamship Siberia.—Chronicle.

From "Men and Women" is the following: When it was rumored, without contradiction, that Mr. James Hazen Hyde was to marry Miss Charlotte Warren, friends of pretty, piquante Mrs. Philip Lydig felt as if they should write her letters of condolence. With many of them it was considered that Mr. Hyde's engagement to Mrs. Lydig's sister, Miss Acosta, was almost a fait accompli, and one cannot blame any matchmaker for regretting at the loss of a catch so eminently desirable as Miss Hyde. All the unpleasant notoriety from which that gay and debonaire young gallant has suffered has impaired his social and personal popularity not one atom. I question seriously if there be among New York bachelors a man who is considered half so eligible a party. Miss Warren especially appealed to Mr. Hyde by reason of her perfect knowledge of the French language, which she speaks with absolute fluency and unimpeachable accent. This summer she took a leading part in the French theatricals given at "The Breakers." Mrs. Vanderbilt's Newport villa. Miss Warren is tremendously chic, and her social position is unsalable. Her family ranks much higher than does that of Mr. Hyde, and some of her relatives, like her aunt, Mrs. Robert Goetz, are among the most exclusive fashionables in town.

If it be true that Mr. Hyde has bought "Marble House," in Newport, as a wedding gift for his bride, Miss Warren will in that gift receive the most costly present ever given by a bridegroom to his bride. Despite the splendor of this residence, Mr. Hyde will spend at least half of each year in France, chiefly in Paris. A very close friend told me the other day that it was actually a relief to Mr. Hyde to be ousted from his Equitable kingdom, as it left him free to follow his dominant desire for life in Paris, a desire his official position here has naturally kept in abeyance. An exceedingly agreeable and amiable young fellow is James Hazen Hyde, who asks nothing better of the world than to spend his money as he pleases in the places of his choice. And in Miss Warren Mr. Hyde will find a bride whose enthusiasm for all things French falls equals his own.

Mrs. James Castle, Mrs. Francis Swamy, and Miss Nellie White returned from Maui on Thursday. Count de Sousa Canavarro was also a passenger on the same boat.

Ex-Governor Cleghorn expects to sail for San Francisco on Friday next.

Mr. and Mrs. S. M. Parker were recalled from the Peninsula by a cable saying that Muriel Campbell was seriously ill, and that an operation for appendicitis was indicated. Prince and Princess Kawannakoa have been the guests of the Parkers for the past week. On Sunday a luau was given by the Parkers for Mr. Pollitz in honor of his birthday. A very agreeable day was spent at the Campbell-Parker villa.

Mrs. Hermann Focke was the hostess yesterday at a beautiful appointed luncheon in honor of Mrs. Edward Tenney. Violets and caryanthemums made the table lovely to look upon. Among those present were Mrs. Bishop, Mrs. Helen Noonan, Mrs. Holloway, Mrs. Kiebahn, Mrs. Conradt, Miss Margaret Walker.

The Paul Isebergs are sailing for the Coast on Thursday. Their objective point being Byron Springs.

Quite a large party are going to Haleiwa over Sunday. Among others are Mr. Bruce Cartwright and family, Dr. and Mrs. Murray, Miss Leontine Hartnagle, Dr. Yost and Mrs. F. G. Humphris.

A pretty little wedding took place at the Methodist parsonage on Friday, the Rev. John W. Wadman performing the ceremony. The contracting parties were Miss Carrie Fernandez and Mr. Frank A. Guptill.

Mr. Wolfe Hart's very interesting lecture given last evening at the Royal Hawaiian Hotel was thoroughly enjoyed by an appreciative audience.

The Hawaiian Hotel will give a hop this evening in honor of Captain Wendell L. Simpson and the officers and ladies of the transport Logan.

There are hundreds of men and women who have not eaten a hearty meal for years. Their stomachs have "gone back" on them. In such cases the Bitters will be found very helpful. It strengthens the stomach and cures Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Poor Appetite, Heartburn, Bloating Cramps or Kidney Ills.

A reception was given on Thursday evening by Bishop and Mrs. Restarick for Mr. and Mrs. Carl M. Lovsted. The Bishop and his wife were assisted in receiving by members of the local Brotherhood. The Iolani Glee Club sang and played sweetly. Refreshments were served by the charming young girls of the parish. An event of the evening was the presentation of a set of solid silver tea spoons and napkin rings by the Brotherhood. A most entertaining and agreeable evening was brought to a close by a sit-up but direct speech of thanks from Mr. Lovsted. Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Lovsted, Rev. Canon Mackintosh, Miss von Holt, Rev. and Mrs. J. Osborne, Rev. F. Fitz, Rev. W. E. Potwine, Miss Potwine, Rev. W. Hall, Deaconess Sands, Miss Taggart, Miss Catton, members and friends of The Brotherhood, Mr. and Mrs. J. Judge and Mrs. Dole do not expect to occupy their Emma street residence until after Christmas.

Mr. J. P. Howe has joined the Bulletin staff. He was formerly of the San Francisco Chronicle and has done work on the Philadelphia Bulletin and Washington Post.

Mr. Bruce Cartwright, Jr., is with the Henry Waterhouse Trust Co.

A surprise party was given Miss Edith Kopke, who has lately returned from Australia, by Misses Helen Givins and Miss Sarah Lucas, on Friday evening. The Kopkes dined with Mr. and Mrs. Ross of College Hill, so as to make the surprise a complete one for the younger member of the family. In this they were successful for Miss Kopke was in complete ignorance of the affair until she appeared upon the lanai of her home to find herself surrounded by a merry crowd of friends. The evening passed delightfully and dancing was kept up until about 11 o'clock. Delicious refreshments were served. Among those present were Misses Ethel Spalding, Eunice Pratt, Margaret Waterhouse, Kathleen Hopper, Helen Givins, Sarah Lucas, Alice Roth, Alice Hedemann, Rennie Catton, Irene Fisher, Belle McCornistion, Alice Cooper, Ethel Bishop, Claire and Edith Williams, Dan McCornistion, Stanley Ashford, Robert Paris, Frank Wright, Andrew Catton, Richard Ames, George Renton, Alston Jordan.

Mrs. Claire Williams was the hostess of a tea on Friday afternoon in honor of Mrs. Balding, of Hilo. In the receiving line were Mrs. Clarke, Miss E. Castle, Mrs. Marx, Mrs. Balding and Mrs. Williams. The grounds of the house were delightful, the large lanai overlooking the sea being most artistic. A bevy of pretty young girls passed refreshments and attended to the comfort of the guests. Among those present were, besides the guest of honor, Mrs. James Castle, Mrs. Van Vliet, Mrs. Peck, Mrs. Tenney Peck, Mrs. Castle, Mrs. Westerville, Mrs. Edw. Tenney, Mrs. Margaret Marx, Miss Drusilla Marx, Miss Nellie White, Mrs. George Castle, Mrs. Tenney, Sr., Miss Margaret Castle, Mrs. W. Castle and many others.

Mrs. Hermann Focke was the hostess yesterday at a beautiful appointed luncheon in honor of Mrs. Edward Tenney. Violets and caryanthemums made the table lovely to look upon. Among those present were Mrs. Bishop, Mrs. Helen Noonan, Mrs. Holloway, Mrs. Kiebahn, Mrs. Conradt, Miss Margaret Walker.

LOVE AT FIRST SIGHT.

She: "Oh, Mr. Cynic, do you believe people ever fall in love at first sight?"
He: "O yes, and fall out again on closer view."
